Hello!

Since 1966, the WeatherVane Theatre has brought live, professional theatre to New Hampshire's North Country—enriching, educating, and entertaining both residents and visitors. Our affordable tickets, accessible venue, touring productions, and strong education programs help us reach our diverse and often underserved community.

Our business and corporate sponsors make this work possible. In return, sponsors enjoy increased visibility, meaningful recognition for employees and clients, and the goodwill that comes from supporting a valued cultural resource. We tailor sponsorship benefits to fit your company's goals.

We invite you to explore our upcoming 2026 season and choose a show that feels like the right fit. If you're unsure, we'd be happy to talk through options and help you find the perfect match.

Inside, you'll find our full 2026 WeatherVane Theatre Season along with sponsorship levels and benefits.
